5. Old Business
 - a. Antelope Island is working on setting up horse camps. Parking in the western parking lot for horse trailers. Plan to make a couple of camp sites they need to be buffalo proof. Keep water at the other end for safety, need to separate the bikers from the horses – bikers don't like horse poop. Would be good for BCHU to head up this project.
 - b. We got a lot of work done at the Antelope Island work project but we didn't do the burger burn the wind was blowing to bad and we didn't want sand burgers.
 - c. Richard Webb went to the Forest service meeting, they signed off on the list of trail classifications they are now locked up for 30+ years. They are suitable for pack animals, they are opens 8 new trails in Monti Cristo. We need volunteers to go cert. for chainsaw use in Logan, they will own the equipment and we can check it out when needed, it will be kept in Ogden. 4-6 people per class Motion for BCHU to pay for the gas for the class by Julia H. motion passed. Signed up Kevin Westcott, Kirt Oman, Hal Peck, John Harrison, Scott Leroy, James Huntsman, Kevin LeRoy
6. New business
 - a. State Meeting in St. George, They took us on some great rides, feed us well, Rainmakers took good care of us and our horses and we had a grand adventure with Paul Gooche. We now have a State Rep to help us with lawsuits ect. There will be a St Meeting in Spanish Fork on May 19th and we will host one here on Aug 25th.
Trail work signs for all chapters were handed out, we can order more if we want for less than $100 ea from Star Sign and Banner 435-862-6181
There was talk about combining the Trail expo with the Horse Expo, Dave Howells is checking into and other ways to improve the Horse expo.
KFAN 1320 radio has asked us to have someone call in on Tuesday nights at 7:05 to talk about BCHU 2-3 mins with Steve Brown,
 - b. Ron Greenwell not doing very good he is in an assisted living home in Bountiful. We talked about doing a life history on Ron.
