

Start of Ride

The Summit

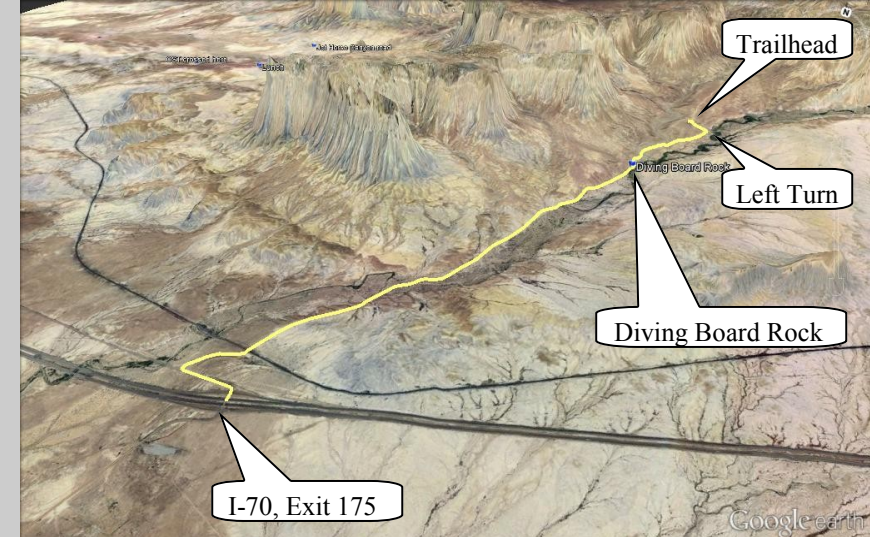

East End of Ride

Ride #108

The "Green River Gap" ride is an easy 10 mile ride.
This ride is part of the "Old Spanish Trail"
There are some old trail/tracks to follow
But the trail West is mostly winging it.
There are gullies and hills to traverse as you find your way West to Horse Canyon road. Follow Horse Canyon road
South for 1 mile before heading back.
The return starts at an old 4x4 trail that heads East.

Extra Riding

There are several dirt roads in the area to follow
They go up into the Book Cliffs area
Also, when you intersect Horse Canyon road you can ride North many miles.
You can also continue West from Horse Canyon road and ride to the city of Green River

I-70, Exit 175

Diving Board Rock

Left Turn

Trailhead

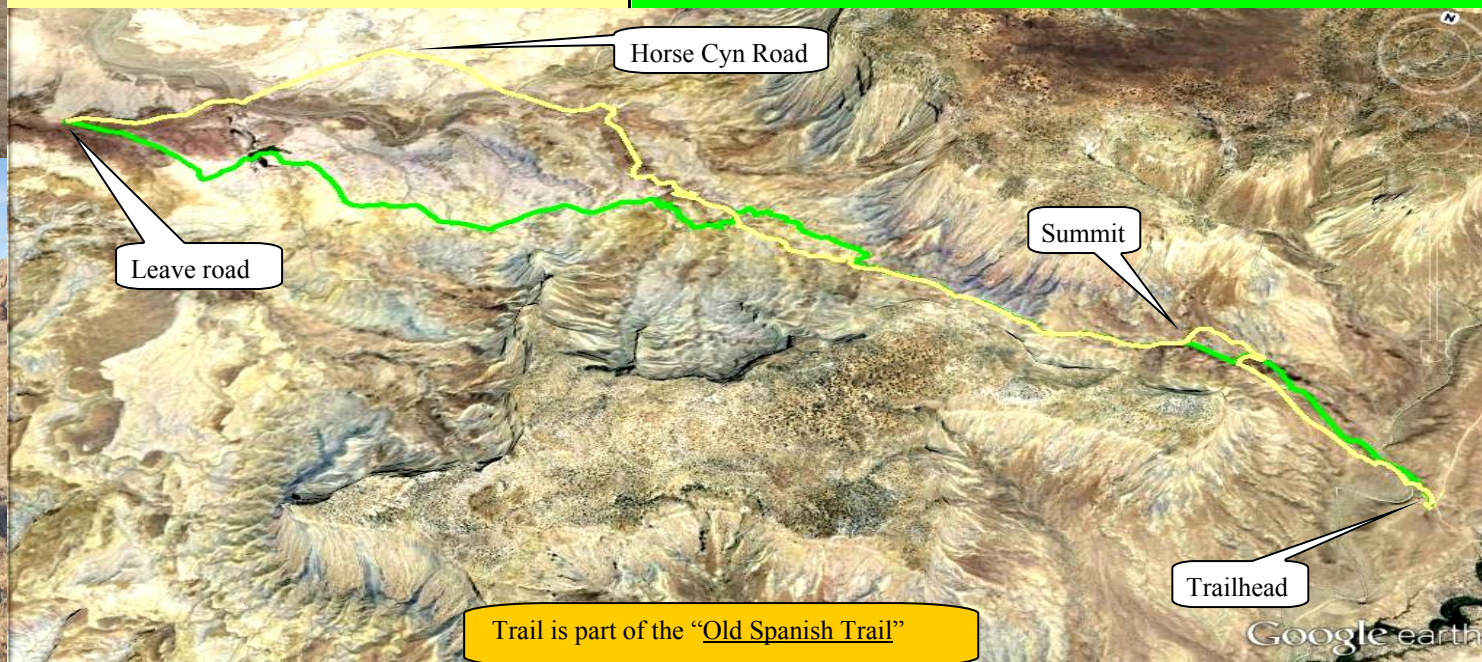

Directions to Trailhead

Trailhead Parking

Directions start at Hwy 191 & 313
Go North on Hwy 191 to I-70
Take I-70 West to Exit #175 (Floy) Road
Go Right & West on Old Hwy 6 & 50 .3 miles
Turn Right on Floy Road (a dirt road)
Follow Floy Rd 3.3 miles to a Jet,
Turn left, go .2 miles .
The old sheep camp here is the trailhead

Green River Gap Trail Map

The trail is basically unmarked.
Some guess work is involved.
There are many gullies and large mounds that have to be ridden around, thru or over.

Horse Cyn Road

Leave road

Summit

Trailhead

Trail is part of the "Old Spanish Trail"